Thursday ye 5th after crossing briars-Creek & many other Waters, we were obliegd to lodge out being favoured wth good Weather. Friday ye 6th after crossing an exceeding bad-Creek, where we were in danger of loosing our Horses, on Account of ye badness of ye Bottom, we arrived to Mr James Smiths in Augusta, wth whom we lodged two Nights. Sat: 7th we visited Mr McCarton, Col: Barnet, Captn Williams, Mr Dunnett & Mr Jackson: who used us very genteelly. Sabb: 8th we both preached to a large Congregation, I spake from Act: 3.8. After Service in ye Evening we went Home w:th Mr. McCarton & dined w:th Him. after ye Service of ye Day was concluded, we went Home w:th Capt:n Williams being accompanied by Mr. McCarton, we drank Tea w:th Him, & then returned w:th Mr. McCarton, who used us kindly. I had Reason to think God sent us to Augusta from ye Usage we had, & ye Effect w:ch ye Word took. Monday 9:th We left Mr. McCartons, after being furnished by him, for our Journey, both w:th Victuals & Drink, He let us have his Chair & Boy to wait on us to visit Capt. Barnet & from thence to Mr. Smiths where we left our Horses; We left Mr. Smiths about Noon & set off for ye Congrees we lodged in ye Woods two Nights before we got to ye Congrees. Wednesday about Noon we got to ye Congrees where we parted, Mr. Bedgegood went down ye River & I went up ye River. The same Day I was suffered to miss my Road in going to Mr. Adams, where I expected to get that Night, this being ye first Time I missed ye Road, wn I was alone, from ye Time I left ye Jersey. The Road I had to go, was only a foot Path about 25 Miles. I took a wrong Path in wh I travelled till Night, & then had to camp alone in ye Woods, where ye wild Beasts of ye Forest is well. Day: following were very Plenty. The Wolves yelled in such an heideous Manner yt my Flesh crawled on my Bones. However there Providence conducted me & there Providence preserved me. I should have been much troubled had not God encouraged me, by enabling me to put my whole Trust in Him, & reminding me "how He shut ye Lions Mouths so yt they could not hurt Daniel.

Thur: 12th: early in ye Morning I returned on ye same Path about 6 Miles, where I met with a Man, who informed me yt I must return in the same Path again, & ye Distance was nigh 20 Miles to Mr Adams's about Noon & & ye Path Difficult wc I found to be true. I endeavoured to hire Him to go wth me & show me ye Way but he entirely refused. The Path I went to ye best of my Knowledge run after ye following Manner having many Forks a few of wc I will mark. I went a Westerdly Course.

Edmds
another Road to Mr Walker's from James Walker's.

I got to Mr. Edmds's in ye After Noon, where I preached from Joh: 3.7. to 6 People, after some Solicitation. Thurs. 13. I went to Lee's Fort, & tarried wth Mr Ogel till is well. Thurs: following

Monday following I spake at his House. Sabb: from [illegible] Ep:
9. 6th part of ye 7th Verse. & from Eze. 33. 11.
after w: Discourse, Mr. Ellege a Separatist spake from those Words, "O wretched Man yt I am who shall deliver me from ye Body of this Death". He rambled much,
after He left speaking, I gave an Exhortation from ye same Words; the People were very attentive & ye Word took Effect on ye Hearts of several. They urged me to preach again ye next Day about 7 Miles from thence as I traveled for Pee Dee.
I agreed to speak between 9 & 10 O'Clock at Charles Hitchens on Rocky-Creek, who lived [illegible] about Noon & on ye Road to Pee Dee. The Number of People yt met was large for such a remote Place I spake from Joh: 5.40. after Sermon they pressed me much to preach again I consented & spake from Joh: 3.3. & then left ym very hungry for more Preaching.

I crossed several Waters before I came to ye Water Kee, & I forded, & went To Daniel McDaniel's

No. 2.

April 19. 1764
to
Oct. 4. 1764.

April ye: 19. 1764. After preaching from Luke. 19. 9., at ye: Town House in Portsmouth, I went Home wth: Mr: Marryott & spent ye: Evening much to my Sattisfaction in Xtian Conversati-on; about 10 O'Clock, wn: I was at Prays, one of his Children being in ye: Chamber, in Bed, cryed out ye: House is on fire, immediately to our Concern, we found her Words true, & after labouring sometime to put out ye: Fire to no Purpose, we carried out wt: Goods we cd: before ye: House burnt down.- It was a very stormy Night, of Rain & Snow- After ye: House was burnt down, we went, ye: Family being much distress'd wth: several Children, to Capn: Job Lawton's. From ye: Beginning of ye: Rupture to ye: End I was much [illegible]

compoſed, till I got down to Mr: Lawton's wc: was about 3 Quaters of a Mile off— Then I reflected on ye: Malencholy Scean of ye: poor Family, being tur-ned out in ſuch a Storm, & from yt: how dreadful it muſt be to ye: Wicked, not only to be turned out of yr: Habitations, wc: will be conſum-
-ed, in ye: End of ye: World, wn: ye: Hea-vens ſhall paſs away wth: a great Noiſe & ye: Elements melt wth: fervent wn: ye: Earth & all yt: is therein ſhall be burnt up: but they ym:ſelves caſt into eternal Burnings— I concluded God aſſiſting me I wd: warn ye: Wicked for ye: future & try to convince ym: of yr: Danger before yt: dreadful Day Fry: 20th: I returned to Newport to Mr: Thi--stans Lodged wth: Him. Satt: 21st: I went

Army Record

Important.

June yᵉ 17. 1777: I set out for yᵉ Army got yᵉ Day to Thomas Osgood's in Andover where I tarried till yᵉ next Day being unwell. Wed. 18. went to Capt Butler's in Concord. Thurs 19 went to Gen: Nixon's in Sudbury Fri. 20. Went to Rev:- Foster's in Liecster: Sat. 21. went to Deacon Ede's in Wilbraham Sabb. 22. pre -ached 2 Sermons at Rev:- Clark's to yᵉ Baptist Society in Wilbraham one from Mat: 22. 42. & another from Titus. 2. 14. Mon. 23. it being rainy & I not well tarried at Deacon Ede's till afternoon then went to Mr: Purchase's, thro' Sprinkfield. Tues:
24. went thro' Kent, Turkey Hill, Sims
-bury, over Sufridge Bridge, Newhartford to Litchfield lodged there. Wed. 25. went by Kenniday's Iron Works, Bulls Iron Works thro' Dover in Fredrickburgh Thurs. 26 went to Peekskill and took lodging with Gen. Nixon. Fri & Sat. in Camp. Sabbath preached one Sermon to Col: Nixon's Reg from Psa. 108. 13. Mon 30. Tues: 1. of July —

Wed. 2. Thurs: 3. Fri 4. performing Chaplains duty. Sat. 5. set out with Gen: Nixon for Albany, y: Night lodged in y: High Lands. Sabb. 6. got to fishkill and lodged there. Mon. 7. embarked for Albany on board y: Nancy commanded by Cap: Beekman got to Albany on Tuesday afternoon. Wed. 9. tarried in Albany. Thurs: 10. Went to Half Moon Fri. 11. Went thro' Stillwater to Saratoga Sat. 12. Went to Fort Edward. Sabb. 13 y: Brigade were ordered to march to Fort Ann. Mon. 14. I remained at Fort Edward with y: Baggage and Artilery & performed Chap: duty amongst those left. Tues: 15. Wed: 16. Thurs: 17 tarried with the Party left & y: baggage. Fri: 18, went with y: Baggage & Party to Kingsbury where y: Brigade was encamped Sat: 19. preparing for Sabb. Sabb. 20. preach'd one Sermon to Gen: Nixon's Brigade from Matt: 8. 34. Mon. 21. performing Chap: duty. Tues: 22. We had i.e. our Brigade a Skirmish with y: Indians near Jones's Mill in Kingsbury where Lieu: Col: Nixon's Horse was killed by ye: Enemy under him; & we lost six men beside ye wounded we maintained our Ground & repulsed ye: Enemy, in ye: Evening we returned to Fort Edward & Wed: 23. we went to Snookill where we tarried till Mon: 27 crowded in a small space of Ground then were ordered to Moses Creek (Gen: Arnold had ye: Command of Gen: Learnard's & Gen: Nixon's Brigades at that Time) were we tarried till ~~Thursday~~ Wednesday 30 when we were ordered to Fort Miller. Thurs: 31. We were ordered to Saratoga & encamped on Gen: Schuyler's Land near his House in that Place. Fri: 1. of August. (I forgot to mention last Lord's Day wc: was ye: 27. Ult: I attended ye: Funeral of Miss Jenny M:cray & a Lieut: in our Army were killed & scalped by ye: Indians beside other abuses on their bodies.) & Sat: 2. perform-ing Chaplain's Duty in Gen: Nixon's Brigade Sabb: 3. left Saratoga and went to Still-Water were we tarried till ye: 14th Inst: I perfor-med Chaplain's Duty in Gen: Nixon's Brigade to wc: I am Chap: Sabb: 10. I preached a sermon to ye: Brigade from Gal: 5.13. - I would here observe our Movements in retreating from

Kingsbury under ye: direction of Genl Schuyler to Still-Water. After an Engagement with ye: Enemy on Tues: 22 Ult. at Kingsbury our Baggage was removed with all ye: Tents &c to Fort Edward our Brigade, left their Ground after repulsing ye: Enemy about Dusk and were Ordered to march to an Height about ½ or ¾ of a Mile from where our Tents &c were carried so yt: ye: Brig:
could not have ye: Benefit of them ye:
Night: but after ye: Fatigues of Fighting & marching were obliged to lay in ye Open Air under a heavy Dew; ye: brave Genl Nixon who scorned to shrink from danger or screen himself from hardships, took his lot in ye: Open Field with his Brigade without a Cloak or great Coat to cover him & many of ye: Soldiers without a tight bodied Coat on.
Wed: 23. retreated to Snookill where we were crowded with Genl: Learned's Brigade in a small space of Ground not large enough for one Brige: ye: River on one Side & thick Wood on two Sides where in my Opinion 500 of ye: Enemy might have drove, taken & destroyed both Brigades however kind

Providence did not suffer y: to attack us in y: Situation. From this miserable Situation we were removed y: 27th: to Moses Creek where we encamped in y: Woods y: Indians around would fire on our Centinals. From this Place with several Brigade we were ordered to Fort Miller y: 30th. our Brigade brought up y: Rear, also were ordered to tarry till all y: Flower was sent off which detained y:m till dark: y: Enemy was in our Rear & drove in our Rearguard upon w: I was sent by Gen: Nixon to Gen: Schuyler to inform him of a large Body of Enemy neare, but he neither sent his Aid-Decamp or went himself, or sent any Troops to recover y:t retreat supposing our Brigade sh:d have been worsted with a Superior Number or Strength, after our arrival to Fort Miller which was about 10 O'Clock at Night, our Brigade was ordered about 1/2 Mile as an advanced Piquet directly from y: River & y: Tents haveing nothing but y: Heavens to cover y:m:
& some of y: Men had been without Victuals 24 Hours. We were ordered from thence to Saratoga y: 31. were we remained till y: 3 of Aug: which was Lord's Day and a very awful

Day on ye: Acc: of Gen: Schuyler's conduct who acted more like a mad Man than ye: Commander in Chief, He beat some of ye: Soldiers who were performing ye: duty, He cursed, damned swore, profaned ye: Name of God in a most horrible manner, & Swore by his Maker yt: if he could light of ye: Major of our Brigade yt: he would split his Head open & scatter his Brains about ye: Ground, He attempted to thrust an Officer thro', and afterwards made his brags of it, yt: it was happy for ye: Officer & unlucky for ye: service yt: he had not killed him, many particulars of like conduct. ye: 8 of Aug: we were ordered to Still-Water, where we arrived about 11 or 12 o'Clock at Night, no ground being set out for our Encampment & our Baggage not being found our Men were obliged to lodge in ye: open Air again, thus ye: Brigade has been harrassed (besides Skirmishes) hungry, & ill treated by ye: Commander in Chief. Schuyler. The 14 of Aug: we left Still Water and went to ye: Landing in ye: upper part of Half-Moon. Fri: 15. Sat 16 performing Chaplains Duty. Sabb: 17. preached a Sermon to Gen: Nixon's Brigade from Eccl: 8. 11. Mon. 18. we went to ye:

Augt. 1777

Northermost Island between ye. Sprouts of Mohawk-River next to Half Moon where we arrived in ye. Afternoon had the Encampment to lay out, and the wood & Brush to clear off before our Marquees & Tents could be pitched ye. Place for our Encampment was a great Thicket. Tues. 19. Thurs: 11: remained at Still Water. Fri. 12. went up ye: river about 2½ or 3 Miles Sat: 13. on my Duty. Sabb. 14. preached to Gen. Nixon's Brigade from Psa. 60. 11. had Gen. Gates, Gen. Nixon, Gen. Glover, Gen. Poor amongst other respectable Gentlemen for my hearers. Mon. 15. Tues: 16. Wed. 17 our Army were much engaged in fortifying. Thurs: 18: fortifying. Fri. 19 a very warm Battle was fought between Gen. Burgoyn's Army and one Division of our Army commanded by Gen. Arnold ye: Action begun early in ye: Afternoon between Gen: Frazier's flying Camp & Col: Morgans Corps consisting of ye: Rifle Men & our light Infantry, at first we drove them back & ye: firing ceased ye: Enemy being reinforced they renewed ye: Attack about ½ after three, which continued almost three Hours heavy & incessant ye: Evening closed ye: Action, we lost 64 killed & 217. Wounded & 38 missing

Sat: 20. Sabb. 21. We expected another Engagement. [illegible] We alarmed & preparing to meet ye: Enemy yt: I did not preach. Mon. 22. Tues: 23. Wed. 24 Thurs.

Gen. Washington's Orders Head Qrs. Fredericksburgh Octr. 31. 1778.

Purity of Morals being ye: only sure Foundation of publick Happiness in any Country & highly conducive to render Subordination & Success in ye: Army, it will be well worthy ye: Emulation of Officers of every Rank & Class to encourage it both by Influence & Example, and ye: Penalties of Authority, it is painful to see many shameful Instances of Riot & Licentiousness among us, the wanton Practice of Swearing has risen to a most disgusting Height a regard to Decency sh: conspire wth: a Sense of Morality to banish a Vice productive of neither Advantage or Pleasure, the frequent Robe which have lately prevailed in ye: Vicinity of Camp are truly alarming & demands ye: most vigilant Exertions to detect ye Perpetrators & bring ym: to ye: severest Punishment. ——

Gen. Nixon's Brigade Orders. Second Hill New Millford. Octr. 31. 1778.

Gentlemen Officers & Soldiers. As ye: Fortune of War has called us into many Places & amongst Inhabitants of various Dispositions, as well as those of different Nations, since ye: Commencement of ye present unhappy War, I sh.d be wanting in ye: acknowledged Respect, due to yr: Characters, was I to omit giving ye Information of ye great Pleasure & peculiar Satisfaction wc: yr uniform Conduct has afforded me; in bravery Dangers & enduring Hardships & a determined firmness of Mind, wc. wd. have done Honour even to famed Romans; especially wn: complicated Distresses would have driven any Soldiers into unlawful Depredations, whose greatness of Mind and tender Feelings of Soul, with a just Sense of Military Honor, had not been ye: governing Principles of yr: Conduct. The Inhabitants amongst whom Providence has cast us, from Time to Time, not only revere: but applaud & respect us. Those whose Fears have been raised, from ye: Misconduct of some, and were grieved at our first entering amongst ym:, have by yr: good Behaviour, had yr: Prejudices removed, & have expressed much Sorrow at our leaving ym: for wc: you are ever to be esteemed & respected, in doing Honour to yrselves, yr: Commanders & yr: Country. We are now marching Eastward, thro a Country, ye: Inhabitants of wc: appear to be very courteous & friendly. And perhaps may soon enter ye: State to wc: we belong I flatter myself my Fellow Soldiers, yt: yu: will still distinguish yrselves, by ye: same noble Conduct, in behaving towards ye: Inhabitants like Gentlemen — destroying none of yr: Property nor insulting yr: Persons, to give ym: ye: most striking Proofs, yt yu: act upon Principles with a benevolent Disposition, & as Friends to ye: [illegible] of yr: Country —— [illegible] Inhabitants of ye infamous Plundering & Depredation [illegible] Report & Letters of his Orders [illegible] Marauders [illegible] ye Army since his Arrival on ye Ground to multiply ye Calamities of our unfortunate Country Men who have been driven from yr peacable Dwellings by a Savage Enemy: The very Soldiers who are paid to protect ym and whom Duty, Humanity, Principle Shd influence to treat ym with Tenderness and Compassion, plunder and rob them of ye Articles they have left, in a manner which reflects dishonour on our Arms & disgrace human Nature. The first Person convicted of Marauding, must expect to suffer Death, and in future, all Passes are to be issued from Head Quarters only. — Genl. Gates's Orders.

Head Quarters near Still Water Sept. 13th 1777.

Genl. Gates's Orders. The Genl. is exceedingly earnest in desiring ye Officers of every Corps, to be very exact in keeping ye Men within their own Encampments. The Enemy defeated & disgraced at Bennington, disappointed & vexed at ye unprosperous State of yr Affairs may think by one rash Stroke to recover what they have lost, And like desperate Gamesters, hazzard all upon one throw: To defeat ym is to finish ye War in this Department: Great Honour & Renown will be given to this Army: Shd we by ye Blessing of divine Providence, atchieve so glorious a Victory. The Plunder of all ye Enemies Baggage, Camp and Artillery, must be the inevitable Consequence of yr overthrow: but these are triffling Rewards in Comparison to ye Praises of a greatful Country; the Happiness of a People born free, And ye Blessings of Liberty entailed upon yr Posterity — These are ye noble Motives yt will inspire every Officer and Soldier in this Army, with the Resolution to live Victorious or to die free. —

Head Quarters Camp in Advance Still Water Sept. 16th 1777.

[illegible] with ye gallant Appearance of ye Troops this Morning, the [illegible] satisfied they mean to beat ye Enemy — By the best Intelligence from Gen: Burgoyne's Army it [illegible] clear they [illegible] [illegible] marching this Day: When ye Gen: [illegible] they continue ye March, He will Order ye Tents to be struck & the Baggage to be loaded. But ye Army may rely upon it, that He will not abandon this Camp untill they submit to be defeated by an Enemy in every Respect their Inferiors. This Order to be read to ye Camp. —

Gen. Gates's Orders.

Head Quarters Sepr: ye 18th 1777.

The Genl: gives his hearty and cordial Thanks to ye Officers and Soldiers of this Army for ye Spirited Appearance and victorious Determination which marked every Man's Countenance this Day: the much wished for opportunity of revenging the Injuries of our oppressed Country now presents itself: Let us embrace it and Hand in Hand discharge this pleasing Duty.- The Reward of Victory are Peace & Plenty, Domestick Happiness, And ye Blessing of our Wives & Children and succeeding Generations, whilst Confusion, Shame, and Disgrace and the Curses of Posterity attend Defeat — We will then victoriously Perish or live victorious.- The Commanding Officers of Regts: are called on, earnestly intreated and Commanded not to allow more than one Man to attend a Baggage Waggon as ye number which followed ye Baggage this Day might have changed ye State of ye Battle.

Head Quarters Bemuses Heights Sepr: 26 1777.

By ye Conduct of ye Enemy, by yr Embarrassed Circumstances and by ye desperate Situation of yr Affairs: It is evident they must endeavour by one rash Stroke, to regain all they have lost, that failing yr utter Ruin is inevitable. The Genl: therefor intreats his gallant Army yt they with exactness of their Discipline, by yr Alertness to fly to ye Arms on all Occasions particular by ye Caution not to be surprized, crown with Victory Almighty Providence if they deserve it will bless yr Labour

Head Quarters Bemus's Heights. Sept: 28th 1777. —

The Gen: intreats ye Troops will if possible double yr deligence the Enemy are at yr last Shift, & nothing but neglect & Supineness on our Part can repair yr shattered Fortune. Gen. Gates's Orders.

Brigade Orders. Octr 4th 1777. by Genl: Nixon.

The General being sensible from all ye Movements of the Enemy yt a very obstinate & bloody Engagement will soon take place, upon ye Issue of which, ye State of Thousands, if not of America depends, and as ye Success of our Arms, together with ye Valour and Bravery of our Troops, depends upon ye Blessing of ye most High God. He cannot but be astonished & concerned to see so many of ye Troops under his Command, neglecting yr Duty in publicly attending Prayers at a Place assigned for ye Purpose, and at Times, so calculated, as not to interfere with other Duties. He hopes in future yt both Officers & Soldiers will give the strongest Evidence of yir Confidence in God, by Strictly attending religious Exercises Morning & Evening. —

The following is an Address delivered by Genl: Nixon to Col: Mays Regt: on ye 6th of Octr: 1777. Just before ye Time of yir Enlistment Expired in order to induce ym to tarry a few Days longer, and assist in ye compleat Conquest of Gen: Burgoyn's Army. – Gentlemen Officers & Soldiers — I heartily congratulate you upon ye late signal Success against our Enemies: The glorious Work is so favourably begun, yt it cannot fail of inspiring ye Friends of America with becoming Zeal & Fortitude to brave future Dangers, endure ye hardships of a Camp Life for a few Days, & assist in giving a finishing Stroke in a Conquest, which may insure ye Freedom & Happiness of America. Consider ye Fate, not only of your Friends, Families, States & Priviledges, but ye of an extensive Continent [illegible]-ing Millions, is now depending; & should we fail in completing ye glorious Conquest which is now begun, by Reason of the brave Militia leaving us at this critical Juncture, it must give them such painful Sensations, that their very peaceful Habitations would become Dwellings of restless Anxiety, & ye very Friends & Relations, would be ready to blame them, for ye loss of ye Priviledges, and ye Fall of a new political World. — Gentlemen be persuaded to adopt ye excellent Scriptural Expression in Nehemiah. "Shall such a Man as I flee, I will not go": only assist us a few Days longer, you shall then be dismissed with Honour You will have ye Thanks of ye Generals & ye Applause of your Country. —

Notwithstanding ye above Spirited Address ye whole Regt. left our Army ye very ~~day~~ beginning of ye Week in which Gen: Burgoyne surrendered excepting ye Col & Major of ye Regt.

Head Quarters Saratoga. Octr. 12th: 1777. Gen: Gates's Orders.

The General sees so many scandalous & mean Transactions com-mitted, who seek more after Plunder than ye honour of doing their Duty in a Soldier like and becoming Manner, yt He is obliged to declare his unalterable Resolution to have ye first Person who shall hereafter be detected Pillageing ye Baggage and Stores taken from ye Enemy tryed & punished with ye utmost Severity of ye military Law. Officers who know their Duty & have virtue to practice it, will not be seeking Plunder when they ought to be doing their best Service in ye Field. It is only the worthless & pilfering that are so truly infamous. For ye future all Plunder from ye Enemy is to be delivered to Lieut: Col: Hay Dep: Q. M. G. who is to give a Receipt for ye same, and after three Days public Notice in Genl: Orders, it shall be sold by Auction in ye most centrical Place in ye Rear of the Army, And ye Money for which ye Plunder is sold shall be properly and [illegible] divided to such Persons as in ye impartial Judgment of the Gen[illegible]

[illegible]tle to receive a share when there is a sum sufficient to divide amongst ye: non Commissioned Officers & Soldiers of ye: whole Army they may be assured of each having their just Quota. —

Head Quarters Saratoga Octr: 13. 1777. Gen: Gates's Orders

The Disappointment & Vexation of Gen: Burgoyne, at ye: frequent Defeats of his Army must have reduced his Army to despair and himself to a Situation of Mind yt: often produces a desperate attempt, ye: Rage excited by such Calamitous Circumstances must be watched with Care — The Army confiding in ye: Justice of their Cause and ye: goodness of Providence, need only to guard against a surprise, if they are not wanting to themselves they may have Confidence that a few Days will finish the Campaign. — The Genl: therefore intreats every Officer and Soldier under his Command to be ready to fly to their Arms at a Moments Warning. No Persons whatsoever should upon any Account, duty excepted Straggle one Yard from Post but be continually ready to face ye: Enemy, should rashness & Despair provoke them once more to try ye: fortune of War —

Head Quarters Saratoga Octr: 17. 1777.

Genl: Gates's Orders. The Brigades to be under Arms at their several Encampments exactly at nine o'Clock. The Regement of Rifle Men under Col: Morgan & ye: Corps of Light Infantry under Maj: Dearborn to be ready when ordered to take possession of ye: Enemy's Lines, Posts & Redoubts, the commanding Officers of those Troops are to be particularly attentive to ye: Soldierlike & good Behaviour of ye: Men. The Enemies of ye: United States have propagated an Opinion among ye: british & German Troops, yt: ye: Americans are Barbarians, who pay no regard to ye: Faith of Treaties & whose sole view, is rapine & Plunder. From ye: preceeding glorious Behaviour of ye: Army. The Gen. is convinced yt: not an Officer or Soldier under his Command will suffer ye: smallest Infringement of ye: Convention which their Gen. has pledged his honor, shall not in any the least Degree be invaded. — Let ye: British Army, Let Germany, Let Europe and all the World know, yt: ye: Troops of ye: united States, are not only great in Arms but yt: they are as tenacious of their honor & plighted Public Faith.

as any of ye moſt polished Nations under ye Sun. The Man [illegible] of stealing ye ſmalleſt Article from any of ye Priſoners either in their Quarters or upon their March must expect to be tryed by a general Court Martial, & if convicted ſuffer Death.

Aug 17. 1778

The Laws of Nations well supported and executed are ye: Sinews of civil Society, and the Bulwarks of Defence, against ye: gigantic Strides of Despottism & ye: horrid Infringements of Life, Liberty & Property.—

The undue Stretch of british Usurpation hath convulsed ye: whole Empire & dismembered America from that Kingdom; this gave rise to ye: present War, in which, Thousands have fought, bled and died: A War which could not have been carried on with any probable Success, had not ye: Army been governed by good Martial Laws to regulate ye: Conduct of those who compose it.

Punishment can by no means be the direct primary Design of Laws but is only secondary, and takes Place, when ye: immediate Design fails, viz, of preventing Evils and establishing, good, moral Conduct.

Laws without penal Sanctions, in the corrupt Age, Could answer no valuable Purpos And Penalties annexed to Laws, which nev take place upon Delinquents, would be onl a mere sound of Words; or stand as insignificant Cyphers, at which, ye: very Delinquents them would laugh, Hence appears ye: Necessity of enforcing Laws, by executing condign Punishment upon Offenders, agreeable to the annexed Penalties. This adds Dignity to Government, Establishes Authority, and prevents innumerable ~~[illegible]~~ Abuses & Violences which otherwise, would unavoidably take Place.

Deprive this numerous, reputable Army of ye: Rules & Regulations by which it is governed, and see what a Figure it would make: Instead of being a regular well formed Body of Men - Grand in their Movements - Terrible in Appearance to their Enemies, and honourable in ye: Eyes of the World; It would be irregular in its Movements - Despicable in Appearance to our Enemies, and censured by ye: World - weakned by Desertions & dispirited by Disobedience ye: Bane of all Armies & ye: Ruin of North America —

The Solemnity of ye: Occasion which has gathered ye: surrounding Spectators, exhibits ye: most affecting Sceane - A number of our Fellow Mortals who have been arraigned to ye: impartial Bar, before the Court, which has tried condemned & sentenced them to die this ignominious Death. And by ye Hand of Juſtice on Earth, are ſoon to be diſpatched to ye final Bar of Trial, in the inviſible World; where ye ſupreme Judge of all Worlds, will in ye moſt conſpicuous, ſolemn Manner, pronounce ye irrevocable, eternal Sentence from which there can be no appeal and of which there is no Repeal. —

This tragical Scene ought deeply to impreſs our Minds, and warn us of ye latent Snares, which an invidious, crafty Enemy has ſubtilly placed for ye Sons of Men! For Man alſo knoweth not his Time as ye Fiſhes that are taken in an evil Net, And as ye Birds yt are caught in ye Snare; ſo are ye Sons of Men ſnared in an evil Time when it falleth ſuddenly upon them" Eccl. 9.12. — The delay of Puniſhment ſhould never embolden or harden Sinners in Diſobedience, which appears to have been ye Caſe, by that pertinent Expreſsion in Eccl. 8.11. "Bec Sentence againſt an evil Work is not executed ſpeedily; therefore ye Heart of the Sons of Men is fully set in them to do evil."—

Sin, that Tyrant, which rules, in his Vast Dominions, with an unrelenting Hand of Cruelty & harraſses his Subjects, with unremitting Ardour, is ye occasion, of all ye diſtreſsing Calamities & Evils, which a righteous God, in Just Judgement, inflicts upon a ſinful World.— The Lord who ſits in Heaven has iſsued his royal Mandates againſt all Species of this horrid Monſter Sin on Earth; By which Swearing, Lying Blaſphemy, Uncleanneſs, Theft, Drunkenneſs and all ye Train of Impieties, which defile ye Land are expreſsly forbid, and unleſs repented of, will be attended with ye keeneſt Puniſhment, and ye most excruciating Pains, which ye penetrating Rays of divine Justice can poſsibly excite.

See to what Disobedience has subjected those unhappy Men to whose Destiny, must excite the tender Feelings of Humanity, And Judge ye, yᵉ Fate of those who disobey yᵉ Gospel. "When yᵉ Lord Jesus shall be revealed from Heaven, with his mighty Angels, in flaming Fire, taking Vengeance on them yᵗ know not God & yᵗ obey not yᵉ Gospel of our Lord Jesus Xᵗ. 2. Thes: 1.7.8.

I now turn to you who have finished your Course, and just ready to take your final leave of this World, And I could wish that something might be spoken that ~~might~~ would prove as effectual to you as yᵉ Words spoken to yᵉ Thief upon yᵉ Cross were to him. Your Conduct thro' the various Stages of Life, God knows, before whom you will soon appear; that particular Part which has brought yᵒᵘ to this unhappy End has been determined by Men: yᵉ remaining Parts of which will be determined by yᵉ impartial Judge of all yᵉ Earth, who is thoroughly acquainted with all your secret as well as public Actions. As I have told you so I tell you again, unleſs you are bleſsed with Repentance towards God, and Faith in our Lord Jeſus Christ, you will die in your Sins, destitute of ye Love of God in your Hearts which will subject you to ye awful Denunciation

"If any Man love not ye Lord Jeſus Xt. let him be Anathama Maranatha- The Compaſsionate Saviour who had Mercy upon ye Thief when on ye Croſs just before his exit; is now able to wash you in ye Laver of Regeneration & renew you by ye holy Ghost, which is abſolu
-tely neceſsary, in order to enter into ye Kingdom of God. I will repeat his own Words: "Verily Verily I say unto thee, Except a Man be born again, he cannot see ye Kingdom of God". The Enmity of your Hearts against God cannot be subdued unleſs you are created anew in Christ Jeſus: [illegible] Because ye Carnal Mind is Enmity agt. God: but it is not subject to ye Law of God, neither indeed can be". But not to enlarge; my Hearts desire and Prayer to ~~ye Lord~~ God is, yt He would be merciful to your unrighteousness and remember your Sins & Iniquities no more.

I now commend you to God and the Word of his Grace which ~~[illegible]~~ is able to make you wise unto Salvation

With ye sincere Affection of a real Friend to your immortal Interests, I take my leave of you & bid you farewell. ——

Ex. 1. 10. 11. Come on, let us deal wiſely with ym; leſt they multiply, and it come to paſs, yt wn there falleth out any War, they joyn alſo unto our Enemies, and fight agt us, & ſo get ym up out of ye Land. Therefore they did set over ym Taſkmaſters, to afflict ym wth yr Burdens.

1. Neceſſity drove ye Iſraelites into ye Land of Egypt, to obtain Food. Vide Gen. 42. 43. 44. 45 Ch. May it not be ſaid with Equal Propriety yt Neceſſity drove our Forefathers to this once ſtrange Land; tho' ye Neceſſity was of a different Nature, ye former a Famine of Food, ye latter a Famine of ye Word.

2. They were ſmall in Number, when they firſt went into ye Land, as was ye caſe of our forefathers wn they firſt came into this Country: but like ye Americans, they increaſed faſt & grew very numerous, thro' ye Smiles of Providence.

3. When King Pharoah & his Court, perceived ye rapid Increaſe, they grew jealous leſt ye Iſraelites would revolt & leave ym: As was ye Caſe, wth George ye third on ye britiſh Throne & his corrupt Court, reſpecting ye Americans.

4. To prevent this apprehenſive Evil they adopted unjuſtifiable Meaſures to to prevent it. Similar has been ye conduct of british Pharoah & his Ministers, to prevent ye Strength & Power of America.

5. Their subtil, deep laid Plans, were often frustrated; Their political Councils baffled, and ye very People, whom they meant to weaken, increased greatly in Strength, by ye Numbers: Similar has been ye case with ye Americans, whilst ye Wisdom of great Britain has been employ'd to weaken ym —

6. The feble Efforts of Men, to counteract ye unfrustrable Designs & Purposes of ye Almighty are vain. Glaring is ye Instance before us. God according to ancient Covenant & Promise had determined to multiply ye Seed of Israel, & give ym for Possession ye rich & fertile Land of Canaan: But Pharoah and his Courtiers, were fully set to prevent their Liberty, and ye enjoyment of those Rights & Priviledges, wc God designed for ym in ye Land abounding with Milk & Honey: Hence God had to multiply Wonders amongst ym, & to send horrible Plagues amongst ym sufficient to influence ye Hard Heart of Pharoah before he would let ym leave his Land, to go and Worship God - & even after he gave ym permission to go: He & his Host persued ym with ye Language. I will purſue, I will overtake, I will divide ye Spoil: my Luſt ſhall be ſatiſfied upon yem, I will draw my Sword, my Hand ſhall deſtroy yem Ex. 15. 9. — But ye Lord did blow with his Wind, & ye Sea covered yem they ſank as Lead in ye mighty Waters, Ex. 15. 10. May we not draw ye Parallel between ye Conduct & Spt. of King George & his Parlament; Our Fore Fathers left England to come & worſhip God: they were purſued, embarraſsed, & finally with all ye formes & Terrors of War, devaſtation & Bloodſhed; have been threatned with final Deſtruction, unleſs they wd return to yr former Allegiance, & ſubmit to ye cruel Yoke of Tyranny & unrelenting Hand of Deſpotism. Read Gen. Burgoyne's Proclamation & ſee his Fate — Read ye Late Manifeſto & Proclamation of ye british Commiſsioners, & ſee if it is not Tantamount to Pharoah's Threatnings — It may be, yt God under whom we fight, will fruſtrate yem in ſimilar Manner yet, or ſome other Way in which his righteous Hand will be as conſpicuous as in yt —

Method

I. The whole drift of yr Policy was to ſtrengthen yemſelves; & prevent ye increaſe of Strength of ye Iſraelites, leſt they ſhd caſt off yr Allegience & revolt from them.

1. It is ye acknowledge Practice of Kingdoms and States, to ſtrengthen yemſelves, & prevent Evils wc may come upon yem — This is judged ſound Policy, & is juſtifiable in ye Nature of Things. — Union is with Propriety called ye Strength of a Kingdom State, House or City. Matt. 12. 25. But ye Methods taken by proud, aspiring Mortals, are often iniquitous, to effect it. Yea instead of cementing they often divide & weaken. This was the case with ye Court of Pharoah & himself, and this has been ye case with a more modern Court upon ye Island of Great Britain, wc has dismembered ye thirteen United States from ye Empire, wc gave Laws to ye Seas, and were a Terror to ye Powers of ye Earth.

2. Let us attend to some particulars of yir Policy wc bear ye Marks of Tyranny & Cruelty. 1. Let us deal wisely wth ym - lest they multiply &c. say they; this Wisdom consists. 1. In setting Task-Masters over ym to afflict them wth Burdens, by wc they were effectually deprived of yir Liberty & become subject to ye Caprice of yir Task Masters. They were loaded wth heavy Burdens, to dispirit & weaken ym so yt they might be kept in Subjection wth greater ease & prevented from Insurrections. - They made ym serve with Rigour; so yt yir ~~Lives~~ were bitter wth hard bondage. 2. The Hebrew Midwives were ordered to kill ye Male Children at yir Births, when this did not succeed, because ye Midwives feared God. v. 17. - 3. Pharoah ordered all his People to cast every Male yt shd be born to be cast into ye River to prevent yir increase. - Such was ye diabolical Policy of yt bloody Tyrant. Has not british Pharoah acted ye similar Part in several Instances? 1. Did he not in ye depth of his Policy, send Commiſsioners to burden us, in all our Sea Port Towns who impoſed grievious Burdens, & in ye regulation of our Trade deprive us of our Liberty? Did He not endeavour to burden us by ye Stamp Act? and ever reſtleſs leſt we sh:d become numerous and strong; finally attempted to deprive us of ye Profits of legal Trade; by permitting ye East India Company to send large Quantities of Tea into our Ports & eſtablishing a Duty to be paid upon ye same in America, yt thereby a Precedent might be made, for Taxation upon other Articles in our States & so gradually we sh:d groan under Burdens too heavy to be born? What Resistance was made to these Incroachments. 2. Did they not deprive us of our Rights by Charter in violating ye so as to put out of our power, to be tried by a Jury chosen by ye People, & even in case of Murder committed by his Tools, Justice c:d not take Place this Side of ye Atlantic, w:ch in effect was saying destroy those, whom ye think are dangerous to my Dignity, & weaken ym by so doing - Did He not shut up our Ports, deprive us of our Subsistence by Sea - Send his Armies, destroy our Substance & murder some of our Inhabitants, & Lion like threaten Destruction unless we would yield to unconditional Submiſsion?

3. Self was ye governing Principle of yr Conduct, Self Love, Self Glory &c. deafened ym to ye Cries of ye oppreſsed & blinded ym to ye Interest & Happineſs of others - To maintain yr Luxury, Pride Grandeur & Idleness; they wanted ye honest Earnings of ye poor Labourer - To Effect this many must be deprived of yr unalienable Rights & Priviledges, & be reduced to such a low Condition, as not to be able to extricate ymselves from ye intolerable Burdens. - This was ye Plan adopted to Subjugate America.

II. Their Councils & Designs, to accomplish their Purposes, were unrighteous and wicked.

This I shall endeavour to illustrate in ye following Manner.

1. They were guilty of an open and notorious Violation of yr Agreement with ye Egyptians when they first settled in Egypt, ye Land of Goshen were pointed out for Jacob & his Family to settle in Gen. 47. 6. This Settlement of Israel, was free, without any Embarrassments and from any thing wch appears to ye contrary they were to enjoy all ye Immunities and Priviledges wch ye Egyptians ymselves claimed. - May we not with equal propriety say yt America was first settled, by ye consent and Approbation of ye Authority in great Britain, with all ye Indulgence of free Sons of ye british Constitution, wch Rights being secured to ym by Charters, & have not ye Powers violated our Charter Rights, and infringed our Priviledges by an undue Stretof british Usurpation & unjust Tyranny?

2. Did not ye Egyptian Authority deprive ye Israelites of yr Liberty by Degrees till they were reduced to perfect Vassalage & Slavery; so yt it was out of yr Power to assert & maintain yr Priviledges? In consequence of wc they were most intollerably oppressed, with cruel Acts of Injustice. Has not America been in ye same Predicament; whose Liberty was gradually taken away? And had not ye Eyes of America been opened, to assert yr departing Rights, its not improbable but ye Shackles of Bondage would have been riveted upon us and our Posterity long before this Time? Blessed be God wo has appeared for us in ye Juncture of Time, wn our temporal Rights appeared to be upon ye eve of Departure & restored ym to us.

3. They designed to have deprived ym of yr religious as well as civil Rights, wh is evident by denying ym ye Liberty to go out from them and worshipping according to yr own Consciences in a way wc was abominable to ye Egyptians Ex. 8.26 – Have we not just Reason to conclude yt Power wc asserted a Right of Government over us in all Cases whatsoever; wc drove our Forefathers from yr native Land for ye sake of Liberty of Conscience, wd have claimed Dominion over our Conscience & deprived us of yt Inestimable Favour of wc there could be no Compensation. –

4. The Rules of Morality they violated in ye most flagrant Instances. They did not to others, as they would have had others do to ym. – The Laws of Nature they broke, & ye agreeable Law of God they rejected, & were governed by ye narrow, contracted selfish, unrighteous Views of a vicious, arbitrary Heart. May we not say ye same of a british King & his corrupt Parlament, their Plans & Executions, to reduce us, were unjust oppressive & cruel, marked with Iniquity Deceit, & Blood. – –

Improvement.

1. Let us adore ye Hand wh hitherto has conducted us, & preserved us from ye voracious Jaws of ye british Tyrant.

2. Let us make a proper Use of our Rights & Liberties, lest God shd in just Judgment pour in these Evils, of wh we have been afraid & to avoid wh we have hazarded our Lives.

3. If we make a right use of ym, we shall be blessed with our Posterity in ye full Enjoyment thereof.

The Candor and ye Attention of ye wiſe will ever ſuggeſt ye neceſsity & importance of good & Wholſome Laws for ye ſafety of ye publick in general at large: & for ye ſecurity of Property to Individuals in particular.—

Common Reaſon and univerſal Experience dictate ye good Policy of annexed Penalties, proportioned to ye breach of ye Laws.—

Legiſlators are governed in affixing Penalties, according to ye Injury which a breach of ye Laws would be either to ye publick; or Individuals: hence in Penalties ſome are ſmall and ſome are great, agreeable to ye Nature and Influence of ye Offence.—

The original deſign of Laws, is to prevent evil & promote good; and Puniſhment never becomes neceſsary, only when the original Deſign fails.—

The greateſt Puniſhment which human Laws requires, is Death, which is to be inflicted in ye Way pointed out, by thoſe who Judge of ye Nature & Tendency of ye Offence.—

Laws in Armies are as neceſsary as thoſe in States, to regulate & govern ſuch as compoſe them—

Show me an Army, without proper Rules and Regulations, and I will ſhow you a diſorderly, weak, ungovernable Sett of Men: dangerous to ye State, prejudicial to each other, and contemptible to ye World.—

Complicated Evils add to ye heinouſ--neſs of Crimes, which when they Center in an individual, expoſe him to greater Puniſhment.—

The unhappy Convict, which has occaſioned ye ſurrounding Spectators hath been found guilty of two atrocious Crimes, that of Theft & Deſertion, which if not detested and duly puniſhed, would not only weaken: but diſgrace ye moſt renowned Troops in ye World.—

this Execution proceeds not from a malevolent Disposition; or, any per-sonal Prejudice, but from Just and benevolent Design, to prevent ye Evils attendant on such Practices; and to ~~maintain~~ ye Dignity of those excellent Rules & Regulations with which this Army is governed. –

The tragical Scene will no doubt excite ye tender Feelings of Humanity in this numerous Concourse of People and cause ym to reflect on ye horrid Crimes which brought their fellow Mortal to this shameful and untimely End. –

Let this be a warning to ~~&~~ my Fellow Soldiers, and a seasonable Admonition to avoid ye dangerous Ways which terminate in Disgrace & Death. –

The Rules of Morality for ever guard againſt Theft: The Dictates of Reaſon forbid it: The Laws & Regulations of ye Army in ye moſt peremptory manner are oppoſed to it. —

Deſertion, the indignity of a Soldier, is attended with Diſgrace and and Ruin. —

Humanity would fain deviſe a milder Puniſhment than Death for Deſertion: but Experience teaches us yt a milder Puniſhment would not anſwer; for even Death itſelf, is not a Puniſhment clothed with ſufficient Forms of Terror, to awe ye Mind from ſuch a baſe & ſcandalous Conduct, conſequently a leſs puniſhment could not: Therefore a Deſerter renders Death a neceſſary Puniſhment for that Crime. —

By Parity of Reaſon we may argue, the Probability & Certainty of Eternal Puniſhment in Conſequence of Sin.—

The Dignity of ye ſupreme Jehovah is vindicated by his Law; which is a tranſcript of his moral Perfections: And if ye threatned Puniſhment of everlaſting Miſery fails in preventing Sin, which is an Infringement upon ye divine Prerogative and a breach of his ſacred Law: ſurely a leſs Puniſhment could not anſwer: Conſequently everlaſting Puniſhment becomes neceſſary: To ſuppoſe ye ſupreme Being would annex ſuch a Puniſhment to his Law to prevent Evil, and not to inflict it, in caſe of Delinquency, would be to ſuppoſe him unjuſt;

or, to act a Part on purpoſe to deceive, and impoſe upon Mankind: which would be to impeach the Character of ye Deity in a Manner which I would not not be guilty of for the whole World.

Sinners (like this unhappy Criminal did or might think) may flatter themſelves that they ſhall eſcape ſuch a ſevere Puniſhment, whilſt they inſult ye Authority of the Deity, by Swearing, Lying, profaning his Name with moſt execrable Oaths and Curſes:- Stealing and polluting themſelves with Fornication, Adultery and all ye horrid Train of Sins provoking Sins and Uncleanneſs: But they will find a Juſt God will bring them to Judgment, when all their ſecret Sins will be diſcloſed and brought to light, and each one ſuffer a condign Puniſhment for all his Sins, agreeable to ſacred Record. "For God ſhall bring every Work into Judgment, with every ſecret Thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil."–

A few Words to ye unhappy Criminal and I ſhall have done.

The dreaded Hour is arrived, in which you are to be diſpatched from this World, to ye World of Spirits– You are now to ſuffer a final & laſting Separation from this Life, as a Puniſhment due to your Crimes, which is the Execution of thoſe threatned Penalties which were originally deſigned to prevent ſuch Evils - and not to take Place upon any of ye Sons of Men, only when ye original deſign fails. -

When you are diſcharged from this World, your immortal Spirit, muſt appear before God who judgeth righteouſly, at whoſe Bar you will be tried, and from whoſe Juſt Judgment, there can be no Appeal, no Reprieve, nor any Pardon.

O that ye Author of our Exiſtence would direct me to ſome ſuitable Expreſsions which might prove efficacious to your Soul, in this your laſt Hour! -

May that Saviour who had Compaſsion upon yᵉ Thief on the Croſs, deign to look upon you with an Eye of Pity; and grant you a full Pardon of all your Sins!
with him there is forgiveneſs and plenteous Redemption: His Blood cleanſeth from all Sins: And he is able to ſave in yᵉ laſt Hour: His Language breaths a Spirit of Love and Benevolence; who Addreſses Sinners in very pathetic and moving Expreſsions.- "Come unto me all ye yᵗ labour, and are heavy laden, and I will give you reſt"
"Look unto me, and be ye ſaved, all the Ends of yᵉ Earth: for I am God, and there is none elſe."

"him ye cometh to me I will in no wiſe caſt out." "I came not to call ye righteous: but Sinners to Repentance" Many other Paſsages might be mentioned, in which, the good Will of Chriſt is diſcovered to Sinners.— Perhaps you are conſcious that you are a great Sinner; and ready to conclude, there can be no mercy for one who has ſo offended God and is rejected of Men: If this ſhd be ye Caſe, pray remember ye Thief upon ye Croſs, in like Circumſtances, obtained Forgiveneſs at laſt: unto whom Chriſt ſaid this Day ſhalt thou be with me in Paradiſe Be aſsured that God ſo loved the World as to give his only begotten

Son ye: whoſoever believeth in him ſhd: not periſh but have everlaſting Life. And even now if you will believe in him you ſhall be ſaved — He is able to give you a new Heart and put within you a right Spirit — And effect ye: great Work of Regeneration, without which you cannot enter into ye: Kingdom of God. Great Sinners have happily experienced him to be a great Saviour. My dear Sir, I muſt leave you with ye: God who is able to ſave or deſtroy; the Rectitude of whoſe Nature, cannot poſsibly admit of his doing wrong. My warmeſt Deſires accompany you, my beſt

Bliſses attend you, whilſt with all ye Powers of my Soul, I bid you a cordial and a long Farewell.

"I was born in Wales, in West Chester City, Son of Joſiah Edwards who after my birth moved to Liverpool, and died when I was very young - I uſed to work about and waite upon People - I lived 2½ Years in Gun Tavern near ye Queens Palace - was afterward a Waiter to Samuel Gordon Knight & Baroknight - then returned to Chester where my Mother lived, and tarried about ½ a Year, then went two Voyages with Capt: Richardson in a Merchant Ship to ye: West Indies — Then married in Liverpool about 18 Years old, my Wife is dead, who left one Son.

I came to New York in a Letter of Mark named Sarah Golburn, loaded with Salt — then being desireous of coming into ye: Country, I listed for ye: Purpose in Col: Morrison's Core, who com-manded ye: New Jersey Volunteers, additional ~~[illegible]~~ Gunner to ye: Train of Artilery — I continued with ym: betwixt two & three Months, then made my Escape from ye:
Picquet at Kings Bridge, at ye: Redoubt
No: 7. & brought off two men with me, Michael Harly & James Lacson — Went to Litchfield and Listed in Capt: David Whitehead's Company as drummer & served with him Eleven Months. — Then went to Deerfield & worked at Farming Business near three Months with Esqr: Ashley Son to the Minister there — After that I took Joseph Lindley's Place of New Jersey, in Capt: Rhodes's Company belonging to Litchfield.

3. I had no thoughts of deserting 1/2 Hour before I went off neither do I think either of ye: Others who went with me had: but having been without Bread five Days, & just received our Wages drank too freely which was ye: Occasion of our Desertion — I stole one Cloak, one Pair of Boots and one pair of Stockings when I went off. — The Pistol & Ammunition which I was charged of taken I am clear off. —

I hope all Men will take warning by me, and avoid Drinking, playing Cards & following bad Advice which Evils have brought me to this. —

Chaplain Smith's Address to the Amer. Army on Swearing.

July 31. 1779.

This Address on Swearing, composed in the "Gorge of the Highlands", was delivered to General Nixon's Brigade, July 31. 1779. in accordance with an Army Order from General Washington.

See Guild's Chaplain Smith.
Pages 256-9.

From Gen. Washington's Orders —

Many and pointed Orders have been Iſsued against ye unmeaning and abominable Custom of Swearing; notwithſtanding which, with much Regret, ye Gen. obſerves yt it prevails (if poſsible) more than ever, his Feelings are continually wounded with ye Oaths and Imprecations of ye Soldiers whenever he is in hearing of them — "The Name of yt Being from whoſe bountiful Goodneſs we are permitted to exiſt, and enjoy ye Comforts of Life, is inceſsantly imprecated, and prophaned in a manner as wanton as it is ſhocking — for ye ſake therefore of Religion Decency and Order, ye Gen. hopes, and truſts, yt Officers of every Rank will uſe their Influence and Authority to check a Vice which is as unprofitable, as wicked, and ſhameful. If Officers would make it an inviolable Rule to reprimand and (if that don't do) to puniſh Soldiers for Offences of this Kind, it could not fail of having ye deſired Effect. —

The above was taken from Gen. Washington's Orders of July ye 29th 30th. 1779. ——

The above order is ſenſible, pious and Polite — ſenſible, as to ye Matter, Manner and Deſign. — Pious, as it cenſures, oppoſes and diſcountenances a Vice, pregnant with all ye Horrors of Prophaneneſs, which violates ye Rules of Decency and good Order, & is repugnant to our bleſsed Religion. — Polite — in ye genteel Reproof given (to prophane Officers; who are requeſted to uſe their Influence and Authority to check an unprofitable, wicked & ſhameful Vice, a Vice of wc themſelves are guilty and agt which, it cannot be ſuppreſsed; their Efforts will be vigorous, whilst they countenance it with their Preſence, and in their Practice.— Would it not appear very humorous to hear ye Devil rebuke Sin ye mere Offspring of his own Degeneracy — And could he expect any tolerable Succeſs, in ſuppreſsing ye, of which he himſelf, is an ~~avowed~~ practical Patron —) Whilſt this pointed Reproof appear in all ye Forms of Decency and Politeneſs to ſuppreſs ye growing evil; ye virtuous Officer is honored and ſupported in pouring ſovereign Contempt upon that unprovoked Vice, which is an indignity to human Nature and an Infringement upon ye Authority of ye Deity — The magnanimous Soul of our worthy Patron in ye espouſed Cauſe of our injured Country; no longer able to conceal his diſpleaſure, at this growing Evil, burſts forth in ſtriking language and informs us, that his "Feelings are continually wounded with ye Oaths & Imprecations of ye Soldiers, whenever he is in hearing of them." His conspicuous Sincerity, accompanies his indignant Feelings, in deſiring ye exertions of ye Influence & Authority of every Officer in ſuppreſsing Profaneneſs — Let me aſſure ye Gentlemen Officers and Soldiers that His Excellency is not ye only one in ye Army, whoſe Feelings are repeatedly wounded with this Diabolical Language: Every pious, conſcientious Perſon amongſt us are ſenſibly affected with it — It is offenſive to ye pious Mind, it excites painful Senſations to ye conſcientious — It is a regiſtered Evil in the ~~[illegible]~~ Court of Heaven — It is a Crime, for which, ye great Jehovah poſitively declares, he will not hold ye guiltleſs — And that for which ye must ſeverely ſuffer, unleſs re[illegible]d of —

By yᵉ Authority of Congreſs — By yᵉ Rules of Decency and Politeneſs — By yᵉ earneſt & repeated Deſires of his Excellency Gen. Waſhington — By yᵉ ſacred Truth of the holy Scriptures — And in yᵉ Name and by yᵉ Authority of yᵉ bleſsed Jeſus, I earneſtly intreat each one of you to forbear, this odious practice of prophane Swearing; and ſuppreſs it in yourſelves, and in each other for yᵉ future — In doing which, you will do honor to yourſelves, — you will reſpect yᵉ Rules of Decency, Politeneſs & good Manners. — The Laws of Morality will be attended to — The recent Order of our Military Commander in Chief, will be ſtrictly obeyed — Your inoffenſive Language would endeare you to yᵉ virtuous & pious — ~~and~~ It would be a happy Preſage of Reformation & forebode ſomething go and glorious. — — I cloſe, with yᵉ pathetic Language of yᵉ immaculat Jeſus. But I ſay unto yᵘ, Swear not at all; neither by Heaven, for it is God's Throne: Nor by yᵉ Earth, for it is his footſtool: neither by Jeruſalem, for it is yᵉ City of yᵉ great King. Neither ſhalt thou ſwear by thy Head, becauſe thou canſt not make one Hair white or black. But let yʳ Communication be, yea, yea; Nay, Nay: for whatſoever is more than theſe, cometh of Evil — Matt. 5. 34. 35. 36. 37

Oct. 17. 1779.

Isa. 26. 8. Yea, in ye Way of thy Judgments, O Lord, have we waited for thee; the Deſire of our Soul is to thy Name, & to ye Remembrance of thee — —

1. The anniverſary of this Day cannot fail of exciting ye moſt pleaſing Reflections, upon ye grand Event, which took place on ye 17th of Oct. 1777 where at one View, we behold ye moſt agreeable Iſsue of ye northern Campaign; ye Effect of American Bravery — The boaſted Glory of Britain, fall — & the Baſis laid for American Importance, amongſt the Powers of ye Earth — An Event, ſcarcely parallel'd in Hiſtory, which exceeded the moſt ſanguine Expectations, of the brave Sons of Freedom; ensured future Succeſs, to our military Operations: ſince which, our public Affairs have afforded ye moſt pleaſing Hopes of future Wealth & greatneſs —

2. I feel myſelf happy to congratulate my Auditory, on ye Revolution of this Day, a Day wch reminds us of yt wch was big, with ye Fate of America. and offers to view, ye grandest Conquest ever gained, since ye Creation of ye World — Upon this Day we have ye pleasing retrospective View, of ye Surrender of one, whose military Character was great. whose Zeal with unremitting Ardour burst forth, in all ye Forms of Art: or ye pompous Proclamation, filled with Bombast, designed to terrify, & spread Consternation thro ye northern Clime, & drive ye timid Inhabitants to a tame Submission to british Tyranny — But british Pride & Glory having arrived to ye Summit; now begin visibly to decline which becomes ~~very visible~~ evident, in ye Surrender at Saratoga. — Altho' this Acquisition will adorn ye historical ~~Pages~~ Pages of this new World & transmit yᵉ Names of yᵉ Worthies to yᵉ ~~latest~~ future Ages: Yet this Day reminds us of another Conquest, wᶜʰ ~~so~~ far exceeds yᵉ one now mentioned, as scarcely to admit of Comparison. — A Conquest, more extensive in its Influence; more interesting in its Nature, and more beneficial to yᵉ World — A Conquest celebrated by Ages, & will be transmitted to yᵉ latest Period of Time. It differs from all others in this, it was gained, by yᵉ Conqueror's passing thro' death — "That thro' Death he might destroy him yᵗ had yᵉ power of death that is, yᵉ Devil." — It is yᵉ Conqueror, wᵒ gained this ~~Conquest~~ Victory in his own Person, without yᵉ least Assistance from any of yᵉ Sons of Men; [illegible] to his own Declaration, "I looked, & there was none to help; and I wondered yᵗ there was none to uphold: therefore mine own Arm brought Salvation unto me, & my Fury it upheld me." Isa. 63.5.

He engaged all ye Powers & Poſse of Hell, with ye arch Prince of ye infernal Regions at it's Head- and he complea-
-tly conquered ye - That He roſe tri-umphant, from Death, and with all ye ſplendid Trophies of Victory aſcended with a Shout, led captivi-ty Captive- and paſsed, unmoleſted, thro' ye Region & Territorys of Satan, to his own Dominions & Kingdom.
Having gained universal Empire thro' his Heroiſm & Succeſs; he is now ſeated on ye exalted Throne of his Dignity; far beyond ye utmoſt reach of his inveterate irreconcilable, & malicious Foes- And is conſtantly enlarging his ſpecial Kingdom, thro' ye Trophies of Grace, in tranſlating from ye Kingdom of Darkneſs:
into ye marvelous Kingdom of Light, Truth & Liberty.-

3. We may with ye utmost Propriety cordially unite in celebrating ye two grand Events, but just menti-oned; ye one affording ye happy Prospect of earthly Felicity: the other ye most pleasing Hope of celestial Happiness—

4. Our Rejoycings on this Day shd ever be kept within ye Limits prescribed by ye Laws of Xts Kingdom & be governed according to the Spirit & Rules thereof: then our Eyes will be to him, who giveth Success; And teacheth our Hands to war and our Fingers to fight.

5. This Chapter is calculated to excite Confidence in God; to wait upon him in ye Way of his Judgments, And to look unto him for Blessings & Success.—

Method

1. Consider some of yͤ Judgments, in the Way of which, we have waited for the Lord.

I would premise, yᵗ: yͤ particular Judgments yͤ Prophet has reference to, which yͤ Jews were exercised, & yͤ Judgments of God at large, I dont mean to consider: only some particular Judgments, wᶜ: have taken place, since our present Troubles first begun.

1. That which gave rise to yͤ present War: may be conceived of, as a sore Judgment: wᶜ: first discovered itself in laying a Plan to subject these States, to intollerable Burdens & unjust Taxations.
2. An Infringment of our Charter Rights & Priviledges, was a Judgment pregnant with yͤ most alarming Evils, which justly roused yͤ dormant Spirit of Americans, & excited yᵐ to wait upon yͤ Lord in yͤ use of Means, to remedy yͤ impending ~~th~~ Calamity.

3. Lexington can witneſs to yͤ tragical Scene exhibited to view upon yͤ Common, near yͤ Heart of yͤ Town, when ſeveral of her brave Sons, bled & fell & died; in yͤ defence of their injured Country; whoſe Death, occaſioned yͤ martial Flame, quick like a flaſh of lightning to communicate itſelf from Eaſt to Weſt, & to unite, in one common Cauſe, yͤ ſeveral States, to oppoſe yͤ horrid Strides of Deſpotiſm, which then made their appearance, under yͤ Tyrannic Enſigns of Fire & Arms. — The ever memorable nineteenth of April, 1775. uſhered in yͤ bloody Scene, marked with Murder and burning, yͤ known Characteriſticks of Brittiſh Cruelty, and ſavage Barbarity. Falmouth, Cha: Town Norfolk, Eaſt Haven, Fairfield and Norwalk, Greenport & Bedford are fragrant Inſtances of yͤ brittiſh Rage; and yͤ unprincipled Conduct, — in yͤ burning & plundering Way —

4. The Effuſion of human Blood muſt be accounted a grievous Judgment, amidſt which we have waited for ye Lord - many have been ye bloody Scenes, ſince ye 19th of April, 1775, in wh great Num-ber of our fellow Subjects have fallen, & left ye Bodies in ye Field of Honor, whilſt their Spirits departed & went to him yt made ym - Their dying Struggles, have contributed to ye happy Proſpect now before us: whoſe Names with reſpect will be handed down to Poſterity. The two grand Actions fought on ye 19th of Sept & 7th of Octr 1777, at Bemuſs Heights, are doubtleſs freſh in yr Minds, ye Succeſs of wh laid ye Foundation for ye happy Event on ye 17th - In ye Way of God's Judgments we waited upon him. -

5. I might likewiſe mention ye Part which ſo many of our Fellow Citizens and Country Men have acted; as Traitors Thieves, Murderers &c & joyned ye Enemy to deſtroy and lay waſte this beautiful Land - as a ſore Judgment - amidſt wc we have waited upon ye Lord. -

6. What hath increaſed ye Judgment, hath been ye combined Powers of Nations in Conjunction with ye numerous ſavage Tribes, who have exerciſed all ye horrid Tortures of inhuman Barbarities, whoſe tender Mercies are Cruelty. - the defenceleſs Children, ye helpleſs Women, ye ſuperannuated Men, are painful Witneſs thereof; ſho. theſe prove inſufficient Teſtimonies - Witneſs ye Priſon Ships - Witneſs ye Houſes of Confinement for our Priſoners in Newyork, where hundreds or thouſands were Murdered by pinching hunger - penetrating Colds, and inhuman Neglects — Amidſt yᵉ whole, we have waited for the Lord: -

II. Show that God is yᵉ proper Object of the Soul's Deſire.

I would premiſe, that yᵉ Deſires of a Soul, are very numerous, and often very pernicious, the Objects are hurtful and ruinous: hence to be deprived of their Gratification, is peculiarly advantageous & demands Gratitude — The deſires are not only numerous, but vaſtly extenſive and could by no means be ſatiſfied, with ſenſual Gratification or earthly Enjoyments: This will hold good with thoſe of different Characters & Profeſſions in Life: the above Obſervation, accounts for yᵉ univerſal Diſquietudes in yᵉ Breaſts of thoſe whoſe Deſires are not to God — that God is yᵉ proper Object of yᵉ Souls deſire will appear very evident from the following Obſervation.

1. No other Object can poſſibly ſatisfy the deſires of ye Soul; ye Nature of the Soul being ſpiritual & immortal; cannot reſt eaſy with an Object merely natural & mortal: It is a Maxim in natural Philoſophy yt a Stream cannot riſe higher than its fountain so ye Deſires of a Soul cannot riſe higher than ye Soul: but Experience teaches us, yt ye Deſires of a Soul often riſe above, & go far beyond all periſhable Objects: conſequently ye Soul muſt be above ym all - hence muſt be left deſtitute of compleat Happineſs unleſs God being ye Object of its Deſires.-

2. The Perfections of ye Deity, afford the moſt agreeable Variety, Harmony and beauty for ye Entertainment of a rationall Soul - Each Perfection diſplays new Glories, & opens up Infinity to ye Mind wc abſorbs all its Deſires, & preſents to view Immenſity, in wc ye Soul with pleaſing Wonder, contemplates, the endleſs Ages of Exiſtance in ye full Enjoyment of undiſturbed Felicity - A foretaſt of which the regenerate are favoured with in this Life. Which makes y^{m} cry out in ye most elevated Strains saying

3. When we consider our Dependence upon him, & our Obligations to him, and the daily Benefits received from him: It is most proper y^{t} our Souls' Desire sh^{d} be unto him.—

4. When we consider y^{t} ye disposal of all Nations, all Providences, and all Events are with him; surely it is highly proper y^{t} our Desires sh^{d} be to him for what we need. He sendeth War, by stirring up one Nation against another. He sendeth Peace, by disposing contending Parties to an amicable Settlement of Differences. He causes a ſeperation of Nations, & humbles ye:

Pride of ye: great, & exalteth ye: lowly.— Doubtleſs it was his Will, yt: theſe young riſing States, ſhd: aſsert yr: Rights, con-tend for yr: freedom, & become Indepen-dent of yt: Nation, whoſe Pride & Luxury are like to be yr: Ruin.—

5. It is moſt proper, yt: our deſires ſhd: be to him, wo: removeth Judg-ments, correcteth gently, & diſcover
-eth ye greateſt Benevolence to ye: Moral World, this he has done not only in his common Providence But by ye: ſpecial Act of Grace, in ye: Gift of his Son to ye: World.—

III. Conſider ſome Things which ye: Lord hath done for us, which call for a gratful Remembrance of him.—

1. The Goſpel, and all its Bleſsings & Promiſes &c, call for a greatful Remembrance

2. We shd: greatfully remember ye: Lord; for raising us up in our political Infancy, and increasing our Strength, when exceeding weak; destitute in a great Measure of army Accoutrements, Ammunition & Discipline - without Law, wth:out order - wth:out Orginization - From a mere State of artless Nature - The Lord hath formed us in Union, as a Band of Brothers, to devise Rules & methods salutary for our political ~~Health~~ good - And raised an Army great and respectable in ye: Eyes of the World - brave - hardy - Patient in Sufferings - determined in Action - well disciplined, & a Terror to ye: most veteran Troops in ye: World. - To God wo: teacheth our Hands to war & our Fingers to fight, be all due praise ascribed for inspiring ye: brave Sons of America with martial zeal & courage. - For this witness ye Bunker Hill - Witness ye Bemusses Heights and ye: many other Places where ye: intrepid Americans have been called to oppoſe y: veteran Troops of Great Britain.

3. The repeated Succeſses, with w: we have been favoured, by Sea and Land, call for our greatful Remembrance of the Lord: particularly y: one, which took place at Saratoga in y: Surrender of Gen: Burgoyne & his whole Army: this was a Sight w: gladned our Hearts— This was a prelude of Britain falling before ~~beneath~~ Riſing America — Since which, America has aſcended in y: Scale of Importance, amongſt y: Powers of y: Earth: And Great Britain has been deſcending ſo rapidly, that y: ſurrounding Nations, at a Diſtance, ſtand amaze, to ſee y: lofty Nation, w: gave Laws to y: Seas and ſpread dread & terror all around, ſinking into Littleneſs.—

4. We ſh^d: greatfully remember y: Lord, for granting to us, ſo powerful an Ally, and giving us ſuch an agreeable Proſpect, of a happy End to y: preſent Conteſt.—

Improvement.

1. As we appealed to Heaven in ye beginning of this Contest for ye rectitude of our Intentions & ye Justice of our Cause so we ought to be obedient to ye Voice of ye God of Heaven; who amidst Judg-ments remembred Mercy, & granted us repeated Successes. — In ye Way of his Judgments, we have waited for ye Lord. —

2. As God is ye proper Object of our Desires; we may learn how vain it is, to seek to any other Object, to perform yt for us: which, God alone can ~~perform~~ do. —

3. Let us greatfully remember ye Name of ye Lord: for all ye Blessings of Grace and, those of Providence — This Day, may we all be made glad in the Lord. —

My dear & loving Wife.

Laſt Night and this Morning we had ſeveral Skirmiſhes, with ye Regulars, Near the Common before you come to Charles Town Neck was one, in which, our People killed one Regular & got 4 or 5 of their Guns without looſing one Man or having one wounded: tho' this day, we loſt one or two Men by a Canon Ball — The Second was at Roxbury Neck in which, by Information, we loſt None & none wounded: tho' we took 30 of ye Regulars beſide thoſe that were wounded. — The third was at the Light-House which ye Regulars & Tories were rebuilding in which, we loſt one or two Men & had a ſmall Number wounded, And our Men killed their Captain of ye Guard and took about 25 Regulars & 11 Tories Priſoners, beſides ye wounded, The Pilot to pilot Veſsels in and out of Boſton was one of them 36 were brought into Cambridge Juſt before Sun Set, as I am informed. The Tories hang their Heads. Thro' Heaven's bleſsing I am in Health hope my dear Wife and Little Ones enjoy ye ſame Bleſsing. It is uncertain what Time next Week I ſhall return home, dont look for me, till you ſee me. As I have nothing more at preſent to communicate, only a conſiderable Number of ye Boſtonians have come into ye Country out of Boſton within a few Days, and it is time for me to go to bed. I am &c,

Camp on Winter Hill Decr. ye 18th. 1775.

y Dear.

This may inform you, that I enjoy my uſual ſtate of Health, thro' the bleſsing of Heaven, hope you and our little Children enjoy the ſame. This Day I expected to ſee another Battle with the Regulars: but hitherto am diſappointed, perhaps it will be brought on before Night, tho' I do not expect it. The Reason why I expected an Engagement with the Enemy this Day was, becauſe they fired a Number of Canon & ſent ſeveral Bombs at our People, yeſterday and laſt Night on Lechmoore's Point where our People are fortifying oppoſite to New Boſton, and in reach of their Canon in Boſton. The only miſchief they did our People was, that they wounded one of our Men in the Rump, which was only a fleſh Wound. Early this Morning, accompanied by my Col., I went to Plough'd Hill to ſee ye Battle: but miſsing of my Expectations, We went over upon Lechmoore's Point: but did not meet with a Salutation from the Regulars, then returned to Winter Hill after about five Miles Walk, this we did before Brakefaſt. I believe the Regulars are afraid to come out ye ſecond Time and try ye Valour of ye Americans. I ſuppoſe you have heard the wonderful ſucceſs of our Army to the Northward in taking Eleven Sail of ye Enemies ſhipping with all they had on board except Gen: Carlton & five more who eſcaped by runing into the Woods.

Decr: ye: 19. 1775.

This Morning General Sullivan informed me that General Carlton was taken, ye: News came ſo direct that He believed it might be depended on. Laſt Night and to Day ye: Kings Troops have ſent a Number of Bombs at our People on Lechmoore's Point: but have done no damage. Thanks to our God for his kind Protection. If you ſh:d have an opportunity pray ſend Mr: Johnson Word to get his Salt ſoon, of Cap: Greenleaf who was to let him have it on my Acct: before ye: Price riſes: I am informed it is a Dollar a Buſhel this Day. Or deſire Cap: Greenleaf to get it in readineſs for him.

You may inform Mr: Wingate that I mentioned to Col: Nixon; what He deſired of me: but I have not received ſufficient encouragement for him to come down upon as yet, the old Sutler has concluded to ſtay.

Decr: ye: 25. 1775.

Yeſterday at General Sullivans I ſaw a Regular Deſerter who left Bunker Hill ye: Night before, He ſays, it is ſickly amongst ye: Regular Troops & many of them die. That they have no freſh Proviſions for ye: Soldiers nor Sauce. They are difficulted on ye: Acct: of Fire Wood having none but what they pick up & burn ye: floors of Markees & Tents &c. That there are but about 500 Men on Bunker Hill commanded by Col: Agnew. I dont expect to ſee yu till ye: fifth of next Month, if then; It is not improbable to me; but ſomething will be done about that Time which if not finiſhed by ye: day I may be induced to tarry a little longer. — We had a violent Storm yeſterday. Am ſorry it's no colder this day, for I long to ſee Boston Harbour ſhut up with ſtrong ice to afford us an opportunity of vi[illegible]ur Neighbours there.

I hope to hear ſoon that Quebec is taken — O what Cause of Thankfulneſs to that God who has given us ſuch uncommon and undeſerved ſucceſs. I am ſtill in Expectation of being in Boſton before next March. Who can doubt of ſucceſs from what the Lord hath already done for us. — We learn that ye Regulars in Boſton are very ſickly of late with ye black Scurvey & much diſtreſsed for want of Food & Sauce they have not even Peas to eat with their Meat. Our Men are in high Spirits. I want to ſee a Reformation, May the ſet Time to favour Zion ſoon come. My Compliments to our Friends in Haverhill. You ſee what a long Letter I have written, cant you ſend me a ſhort one. This Moment Col: Jno Nixon has brought me ye Intelligence of Capt Manly's ſucceſs in taking a Newsloop mounting 8 Swivels, & containg upr 800 Bushels of Oats and near ye ſame Quantity of Potatoes, & near ye ſame Quantity of Corn or rather more ye whole amounting to 2800 Buſhels, A Colonel ~~he [illegible]~~ of Virginia ~~[illegible]~~ was on board who had listed a number of Negroes, alſo one of the Congreſs and three of our Captns whom they had taken, ~~The Captn had [illegible]~~ ~~Board and was taken by the~~.. He took her in ye following Manner He ſailed near her and aſked her whether She was bound they told him into Boſton, he told them he was a Tender of ye lively Man of War and if they chooſe it He would come on Board & pilot them in, upon which they readily received him and ſome of his Hands, who run her into Beverly. — My love to my loving Wife.

Since my last, The Movements of ye Ministerial Army give us reason to think they are about leaving Boston, but whether they will go from thence is uncertain: tho' we expect they will aim for the Southern Colonies, & if so, doubtless our Army will soon move, and be ready to attack them where they land. – The general Orders of today is, for all the Army to get ready for a speedy remove. The Field Officers of the Regiments I serve, as well as others, insist upon my going with them, and I must confess, ye prospect of Usefulness in ye glorious Cause of our Country, joyned with that of Usefulness to Souls, incline me to yield to their Request: & since my People as a Body have not manifested their disapprobation in my being in the Army during ye present Campaign, I think they cannot justly blame me, in struggling with others for the Salvation of America especially the United Colonies in America. – Your zeal for the Cause, united with Consideration I doubt not, will cause you to yield to the disagreeable parting for a few Months. As I shall want to send my Linen in my Trunk with yͤ Baggage of the Army, ſhould be glad if you ~~would~~ ſend me my fine Shirts with my Cotten Linen Shirts as ſoon as poſsible—If I can conveniently, I will come to Haverhill before my departure. You know I want to viſit my aged Mother, which if we go to N. York, I can do. Mr. Wingate can inform you about publick Affairs. The Lord reigns therefore I will rejoyce, And ſubmit the whole to him who diſposes me to be in yͤ Army out of which I could not, at preſent, content myſelf. I truſt America will yet get yͤ day and enjoy her juſt Rights and Priviledges. Let us leave all with God then we ſhall be happy. I wiſh you well, and can leave all with my God.—As I expect to have a Horse found me to go to Haverhill, if our Army moves, you need not ſend mine to me, nor come to fetch me. If we sh: not move you will hear from me ſoon again, when I can inform you when to ſend my Horse. From your loving Husband—

My dear Hephzibah. Camp. Winter Hill. March yᵉ: 20. 1776.

This day I was in Boston where I saw a number of Houſes deſtroyed by yᵉ Regulars, but the damage in that Town, is not ſo great, as I expected. And what they left amounts to a large Sum, which is a proof that they left yᵉ: Town in great Fear & with much Precipitation. We have no particular Orders about marching to the Southward yet: but am Jealous we shall be oblieged to go before long. If so, you will not expect me to Haverhill ſoon, as my Horse is low in Fleſh & not ſo well fitted for a long Journey as I could wish, you may well judge that ſo long Abſence is equally diſagreeable to me as to you: but as Duty in yᵉ: Course of Providence requires it, we ought to be reconciled to it, and endeavour to bear up under it with a becoming Fortitude. Let us place our confidence in God and take delight in Him the ſupreme good: then shall we be happy and the Time will not ſeem ſo tedious to us during my Abſence. If you should have an opportunity to ſend my Summer Gound I shall be glad. There is ſome Dirt in Heaps, in my Meadow, which ought to be ſpread ſoon after I left you, Mr: Bradley told me they would take yᵉ: Place to yᵉ halves & not have any of yᵉ: Fall feed, you had better ſee Mr. Duncan ſoon & ſettle it, who ſhd: have it. If Mr: Bedford dont plant that piece by his House you may let it to ſome body elſe if you conveniently can. Remember Mr: Row owes me three bushels of Potatoes which he says are in Mr: Bedford's Cellar if you dont want to use them, you may sell them, Mr: Benj. Moores will aſsist you in any of your buſineſs. I am ſorry my good Deacon Shepard diſcovered ſuch a Surpriſe at my yielding to what I think is my duty, it will be the best for you to ſay not much about it, & if you hear any Reflections cast upon me dont reſent it but let them paſs, the leaſt ſaid is ye best. I pity and ſympathize with ſome of my People, and hope to ſee them again in ye Lord's Time, with whom I should have been next Lords Day, if They had procured a Horſe for me before I left Haverhill, I hope you will not neglect writing to me frequently. My very dear Hephzibah: I was much diſappointed in beeing out of Town, when Mr: Rogers went thro' for Haverhill with whom I propoſed to have ſent a Letter: I went to ſee our aged Mother, Brothers & Siſters whom I found in Health, tho' left my oldest Brother unwell occaſioned by a violent Cold, which he took in getting ready for a March when called for, who is appointed to ye Command of ye Elizabethtown Troops. We have expected, ſomething would have been done before now, by ye miniſterial Troops in this City: but their expected Army, I believe is not yet arrived, only a few Veſſels lay down at ye Hook at preſent. Our Men in generall are healthy & are daily at work in prepareing for ye Enemy. If ye Enemy ſhould take N: York, I am perſuaded they will find great difficulty, and ſuſtain great loſs in ye Acquiſition. We received in this City ye good News of our Privateers ſucceſs in taking three large Veſſels whoſe Cargo was valuable which are ſent to N: England, I hope they will arrive ſafe.— The Congreſs has greatly increaſed ye American Army, ſo yt with ye bleſsing of God I hope ye miniſterial Army will be diſappointed the preſent Campaign. I long to ſee vital Piety abound & true godlineſs prevail, then would I pronounce America bleſsed, and her Sons & Daughters free." O that my dear Companion of my Life might honour Jeſus with ye: Gift of her Heart, how readily would he receive it, and comfort her under all her Tryals, and furniſh her for Happineſs in this or the other World. — June ye: 10, ſince ye: 8 of this inſt: when I begun this nothing extraordinary has tranſpired here, if you can have a ſafe conveyance I ſhd: be glad if you would ſend me Ebenezer Bradford's Note which I left in ye: little Trunk. My ſeventh Letter, I ſent to Mr: Brown in Providence with a Canniſter of Tea, which Letter he was not to ſend, unleſs he had an opportunity to ſend ye: Canniſter. I truſt you have received ye: Letter I ſent by Mr. Stillman to Boſton, with whom alſo, I ſent you ſomething for a Gown to remember me by, alſo ſomething for one of our Boys a Gown. — Things ~~are~~ exceſsive dear here. however if you ſhould want anything which you cant conveniently get in Haverhill or Boſton, be ſo kind as to let me know it, & if I can I will procure ye: ſame for you, perhaps ſome Articles may be cheaper here than at Haverhill. — What ſupplies have our people on Lord's Days I hope you & our dear little ones are well, kiſs them both for me. Instructions for Lieut. Col. Baum.

The Object of your Expedition is to try ye Affections of ye Country, to disconcert ye Councils of ye Enemy, to mount ye Regiment of Dragoons, to compleat Peters Corps, and to obtain large Supplies of Cattle, Horses & Carriages.

The several Corps of which ye enclosed is a List, are to be under your Command, The Troops must take no Tents, and what little Baggage is carried by Officers must be on their own Pack Horses. - You are to proceed from Batten Kill to Arlington and take Post untill ye Detachment of ye Provincials under ye Command of Capt. Sharewood shall joyn you from ye Southward, you are then to proceed to Manchester, where you will again take Post so as to secure ye Pass of ye Mountains on the Road from Manchester to Rockingham, from thence you will detach ye Indians and Light Horse to ye Northward towards Otter Creek, on their Return and receiving Intelligence that no Enemy is upon Connecticut River, you will proceed to Rockingham, where you will take Post. This will be ye most distant Part of your Expedition and must be proceeded upon with Caution, as you will have ye Defile of ye Mountains behind you which may make a Retreat Difficult, You must therefore endeavour to be well informed of ye Force of ye Enemy's Militia in ye Neighbouring Country. Should you find it may with Prudence be Effected, you are to remain there while ye Indians and Light Troops are detached up ye River. You are afterwards to descend ye River to Brattleburgh, and from that Place by ye quickest March, you are to return by ye great Road to Albany. During your whole Progress. Your Detachments are to have Orders to bring unto you all Horses fit to mount. The Dragoons under your Command are to serve as Pack Horses to ye Troops, together with as many Saddles and Bridles as may be found. - The number of Horses requisite besides those necessary for mounting ye Regiment of Dragoons, ought to be thirteen Hundred. - If you can bring more for ye Use of ye Army it will be so much ye better. - Your Parties likewise are to bring in Waggons and other convenient Carriages, with as many draft Oxen as will be necessary to draw them: and all Cattle fit for Slaughter Milch Cows only excepted, which are to be left for ye use of ye Inhabitants. Regular Receipts in ye form hereto subjoined are to be given in all Places where any of ye above mentioned Articles are taken, to such Persons as have remained in their Habitations, and otherwise complied with ye Terms of Genl. Burgoine's Manifesto: but no Receipts are to be given to such Persons as are known to be acting in the Service of ye Rebels. - As you will have with you Persons perfectly acquainted with ye Abilities of ye Country, it may perhaps be adviseable to take ye several Districts, with ye Proportion of ye several Articles and limit ye Hours for their delivery and should you find it necessary to move before such delivery can be made, Hostages of ye most respectable Persons should be taken to procure their following you the next Day. - All possible means should be used to prevent Plundering. As it is probable Capt. Sharewood who is already detached from the Southward will joyn you at Arlington and will drive in a considerable turn over

Number of Horses and Cattle, you will therefore send in ye Cattle to the Army with a proper Detachment from Peter's Corps to cover them in [illegible] always keep ye Regiment of Dragoons compleat. The Dragoons themselves must ride and take care of ye Horses of ye Regt. - Those Horses which are destined for ye use of ye Army must be tied together by Strings of Ten each, in order that one Man may lead ten Horses. You will give ye unarmed of Peter's Corps to conduct them, and Inhabitants whom you can trust. - You must always keep your Camp in good Position; at ye same Time where there is Pasture. And you must have a Chain of Centinels round your Cattle when grazing. Col. Skeen will be with you as much as possible in order to assist you with his Advice, to help you to distinguish ye good Subjects from the bad, to procure ye best Intelligence of ye Enemy & choose ye People who are to bring me Accounts of your Progress and Success. When you find it necessary to halt a Day or two, you must always intrench the Camp of Dragoons in Order never to risk an Attack or Assault from ye Enemy. As you will return with Regt of Dragoons mounted. You must always have a Detachment of Capt. Fraziers or Peters Corps in ye Front of ye Column, and ye same in Rear in Order to prevent your falling into an Ambuscade. - When you march thro' ye Woods, you will use all possible Measures to make ye Country believe that ye Troops under your Command are ye advance Corps of the Army, and that it is intended to pass to Connecticut in ye Road to Boston. You will likewise insinuate that the main Army from Albany is to be joined at Springfield by a Corps of Troops from Rhode Island. It is highly probable that the Corps under the Command of Mr Warner now suspected to be at Manchester will retreat before you: but if they contrary to expectation be able to collect a great Force, and post themselves advantageously it is left to your own Discretion to attack them or not, always having in Mind that your Corps are so valuable, to let any considerable Loss be hazarded on this Occasion. - Should any Corps be moved from Mr Arnold's main Army to intercept your Retreat you are to take as strong Post, as ye Country will afford, and send the quickest Intelligence to me, and you may depend on my making such Movements, as shall put ye Enemy between two Fires, otherwise effectually sustain you. It is imagined the Progress of this Expedition may be effected in about a Fortnight, but every movement of it must depend on your Success in obtaining such Supplies of Provisions as will enable you to subsist untill your return to this Army. In case you can get no more, and should the Army not be able to reach Albany before your Expedition shall be compleated, I will find means to send you Notice of it, and give your Rout another Direction. - All Persons acting in the Committees or any Officer under the Direction of Congreſs civil or Military are to be made Prisoners. I heartily wish you ſucceſs and have the Honor to be, Sir,

Your most Obedt. Humble Servt:

My dear Hephzibah. Your agreeable Favour of ye 1st Instant came safe to hand by Mr. Ayer, I desire to bless God for his preserving Goodness to you and our little ones, hope Health will be continued which inestimable blessing I enjoy. I am sorry to hear of Miss Polly Duncan's Indisposition hope God will raise her to Health again. We are now on our March up ye River, to meet Mr. Burgoyn with his boasted Strength, expect soon to engage him, unless he should retreat. Our Army is in good Spirits, we have a good Commander Genl. Gates, and a large body of Troops, so that I dont doubt of success, unless we should put our trust in ye Arm of Flesh, which is forever attended with a Curse. With ye blessing of Heaven, I expect our Army will soon do something grand for the Salvation of our Country. This Morning we had two Prisoners fetch'd to Head Quarters of ye british Forces. I have nothing extraordinary to communicate since my last Letter wc. was dated 6th of this instant. Are you like to get an outside Garment for me to wear this Winter, in your next pray let me know what Cloths you are preparing for me. Since ye Battle mentioned in a former Letter, we have either taken Prisoners or had Deserters come in from the Enemy almost every Day. I have expected a general Engagement before now: but when it will take Place, I know not. by ye best Information ye Enemies Provisions grow short. — I am in a good State of Health, blessed be God for it, hope you & our dear little Ones enjoy ye like Favour. Our Haverhill Friends are generally in Health. I saw Mr. Heath's Son ye other day who informed me yt there was a revival of Religion in Plastow. O yt Haverhill might be visited in ye like gracious manner & ye dear Companion of my Bosom be a Subject of divine Grace. How is my Pulpit supplied? Is it a healthy Season in Haverhill? This day we have 8 Deserters come in from Gen. Burgoyne's Army, one Day last Week, we took upwards of 40 Prisoners. Our Army is in high Spirits. Cap: Eaton your Relation from Haverhill is well & is now with me. — My dear, I often think of you & sympathize with you in your present Situation. Dear Brother

Your acceptable favour of ye 1st Inst. came safe to hand this Evening am pleased to hear of your safe return to Haverhill and your good Success to the Eastward, hope it will finally turn out much to your Advantage. - Was you now here with a Cargo of West India Goods it would turn to good Advantage ye Prices of various Articles you may see as mentioned in Mrs. Smiths Letter which was written this Morning, when I was Ignorant of your Situation, or rather where you was. - I am sensible you must be at a loss, at present, respecting Trade; but it is my Opinion that ye regulating Acts will not continue long, as Connecticut has not conceded to it, neither do I believe they will - I understand they are in great Confusion at Philadelphia respecting their Regulations, and it is Judged they will soon fall thro: Things are excessive dear here, and should ye Enemy remain one Campaign more in N. York I believe Articles will be much higher yet: but this is only my Opinion - We are informed of 2000 of ye Enemy have either embarked or are embarking at N. York: but know not whether they are bound. - As to ye Supplies for my Family I shall leave with Mrs. Smith and yourself - One Barrel of Pork I mentioned in Mrs. Smiths Letter. - I heartily Sympathize with Mr. Sparhawk in his loss, hope it will be sanctified to him, please to present my Compliments to him - We see how uncertain human Life is. - You inform me that Miss Whites are courted, I hope if Life [illegible] Witness to their nuptial Happiness - Please to give my Compliments to Mr. Osgood & Mrs. Osgood with ye young Gentlemen of ye Family - Also to Maj. Bartlet with his Lady and Children. - Dear Brother, I wish you all possible happiness and remain yours unfeignedly.

Camp, Continental Village July 9th [illegible]

My dear Hephzibah.

Laſt Week I ſent you a long Epiſtle which, I hope you have received; ſhould yᵗ fail, this may inform you, that I enjoy a good State of Health, thro' yᵉ bleſsing of Heaven, which bleſsing, I hope you and our dear little Ones enjoy. There are great Preparations making, to do ſomething Capital this Campaign: And it is my Opinion, yᵗ a vigorous Exertion will be made for N. York, in which Enterprize, I expect many will looſe their Lives; O yᵗ they may be prepared, by Grace, for ſuch an Event! I have Reaſon to think, that my poor Endeavours, have been bleſsed to yᵉ awakening of ſeveral Perſons in Peeks-Hill, ſince my arrival, O yᵗ yᵉ Convictions might terminate in Conversion! Next Lord's Day, I expect to preach to my Brigade, for yᵉ firſt Time, ſince I joyned them this Seaſon. For I found the Brigade ſo ſcattered, & taken up with Guards, &c, yᵗ yᵉ Brigade Major ſaid that he ſhould not turn any out for publick Exerciſe, nor even furniſh Men to relieve yᵉ Guards, &c, But now yᵉ Recruits have joyned, we are able to have religious Exerciſe in Camp again; and I pray yᵗ my preaching may be attended with power. - How is yᵉ State of Religion in Haverhill? Have you found comfort in yᵉ bleſsed Jesus? O yᵗ all my Relations & Friends were related to Him & experienced his love in their Hearts!

I hope you have preaching in my Pulpit frequently. — As to domestic Affairs I leave to ye management of you & Dean; only remember yt shd I live to return to Haverhill, I expect two Horses to winter consequently shall need all ye Hay & Straw yt grow on my land: & shd yt be short, it might be prudent to purchase a Ton of good Hay: but yt I leave to your good Prudence & Wisdom. I hope you keep ye children steadily at School — Give my kind love to B. Dean and all my good Friends — I expect to answer all ye Letters they send to me. Kiss Billy for me, and tell him he must be a good Boy — My love to Hepz & Jane Accept ye same to yourself, ~~from~~ from your absent, loving Husband.

P.S. If yo could convey a Letter to Dr Mather's in Boston soon, Mr Crocker by whom I send this, can bring it to me. —

Address of Chaplain Smith to the Army.

Gentlemen Officers & Soldiers, Your Patriotism Valour Steadineſs & Conduct in Times of Difficulty & Danger, have exhibited such incontestible striking Proofs of your determined Firmneſs in ye glorious Cause of your distressed Country & ye injured Rights of Mankind yt I promise myself all probable ~~fortune~~ Succeſs under Providence, whenever a favourable opportunity shall present itself— Without Flattery, from your well known Zeal & Fortitude in ye present Struggles, for Liberty:
I can chearfully & heartily venture my Life & Limbs in opposing ye horrid gigantic Strides of Despotism, aided by ye british & foreign Troops; tho fierce in their Tempers & formidable in Appearance. By ye present Disposition & Movements of ye Enemy we have reason to Judge they are meditating some decisive Stroke and like desperate Gamesters ~~will~~ hazard all at one throw. Should they fail their Army ~~will~~ must be ruined tottering Britain ~~will be~~ humbled, the trembling Americans will rejoice & all ye Sons of Freedom triumph, undisturbed Liberty erect her Standard even in ye Seat of ye uncircumcised— Be vigilant, be courageous, be equiped with every necessary to face, fight, drive & conquer your Enemies— You will then be crowned with Laurels of Succeſs; your Friends, your Country yea both Europe & America will bless you And succeeding Ages experience ye Sweets of Liberty—

Letter to General Gates.

(First draft) Wednes. June 2. 1779.

Dear General

I presume a Line at this critical Juncture would ~~not~~ be ~~un~~acceptable to one whose Time and Talents are wholly devoted to the Service of this injured Country and the glorious Cause of Liberty— The Designs of ye Enemy at N. York have been for a long time ~~very~~ dubious: ~~till~~ but within a few Days evidently ~~which to me~~ ~~are now~~ become ~~very~~ ~~apparent~~, of their Movements, together with the Disposition of their Troops, are sufficient Authority for my Judgment, ~~which is~~ ~~as follows~~. Last Sabbath we were informed by some Deserter of a large Body of Gen. Clintons Army were ordered ye day preceding to march ~~into~~ ye Country 14 or 16 Miles from Kings Bridge where they lay; also a number of Shipping were ordered up Hudsons River. Monday last confirmed ye Information by ye Appearance of ye Shipping coming up ye River together with Intelligence of a large Body of ye Enemy advancing by Land near ye River in ye Afternoon One Galley approached near Kings Ferry & exchanged a few Shot with Fort La Fayette on Verplanck's Point, The Fleet coming up the River being formidable & ye Army numerous by Land, it was judged expedient for ~~Gen:~~ Nixon's Brigade stationed at Peeks Kill to retire to the Continental Village, indeed ye small part of our scattered, divided Army stationed at that Post were so far inferior to ye Enemy that it would have been needlessly exposed ye Lives of a number of brave Officers & Men to have endeavoured to retard their March— Yesterday being Tuesday Fort La Fayette was surrendered to ye Enemy— Doubtless Capt. Armstrong of North Carolina who had ye Command thought it needless to hold ye Fort any longer against ye united Force of ye Enemy by Land & Water when there was not ye least Prospect of any Succour or Relief from us— In ye Afternoon Gen. Nixons Brigade ~~was~~ ordered to this Place in order to take ye Advantage of the Heights, our Strength here consists of Gen. Nixon's, & Gen. Huntington's Brigades Gen. Parsons Brigade is expected to join soon. Gen. Washington's Army from Middle-Brook I understand is on ye March this Day— Gen. Pattersons & ye late Learnard's Brigades are at West Point also ye North Carolina Troops with a number of Militia— We have undoubted Intelligence the Troops which were sent to Virginia lately who displayed British or rather savage Barbarity by Fire & Cruelty have returned & were not permitted to go ashore at the City of N. York but ordered directly up North River. West Point is doubtless their Object if they shd succeed (which I pray they may not) it will be of great advantage to ym & disadvantage to us: if they shd fail, they will be amazingly weakened— The Matter has become serious, as ye Struggles of a dying Man are strong so doubtless ye last efforts of an Expiring Power over us will be most violent.
I have ye honor. Dear Gen. to subscribe myself ye most obedient humble Servt:
Hon. Gen. Gates— H. S.
